

Dane County Board

Monthly Updates

August/September 2018

The Dane County Board Wants to Engage You

Looking to hear from those who otherwise might not participate in the public process, the Dane County Board is launching a creative and far-reaching community engagement plan.

Residents can follow the progress of the initiative and offer their own suggestions: <https://board.countyofdane.com/Engage-Dane>

More Details

Dane County Panel Lake Improvement Goals

The Healthy Farms, Healthy Lakes Task Force unanimously approved a series of policy recommendations aimed at reducing phosphorous pollution while encouraging better agricultural conservation practices.

More Details

Public Can Shape Dane County Budget

After receiving feedback from two public hearings, the Dane County Board awaits the release of the 2019 executive budget.

On October 17, there is a hearing open to the public. See the schedule for review of the 2019 Dane County Budget.

More Details

Follow us on Facebook

Questions or comments? Email us at kuhl.lauren@countyofdane.com or call (608) 266-5758

For the first time in modern history, the Dane County Board met outdoors, at the new shelter at Indian Lake County Park.

Newsletter Spotlight

The Board appointed Melissa Ratcliff as the Supervisor for District 36 in Eastern Dane County.

The Ancora String Quartet, based in Dane County, went on their first overseas tour to Germany, including sister county, Landkreis Kassel.